Sorry for my lack of a report last month. I have not received any online orders. I discussed it with Johnny and we couldn't come to a conclusion as to why. So in the meantime, if groups would like to place orders online you can send an order with the items you want & the quantity you need and I'll send you a confirmation with the dollar amount of the order. You will be able to pick up your order at the upcoming ASC Meeting.

The e-mail address to send your order to is:

literature@gpana.org or richarddelano2@gmail.com

Public Relations Report (Steph G.)

Public Relations Report November 2021

The PR subcommittee met with 2 people in attendance.

We looked over the website to see if any Covid guidelines still existed and needed updating, the website looks good.

We discussed the past month. I spoke with Adcare, Phoenix House, and ASU. The H&I Subcommittee will be reporting on the commitment updates.

We lastly discussed the open conversations with Probation and ACI for the upcoming chair. I reached out to both facilities this past month, and am still waiting on a response. Our hopes as a committee is to keep these conversations going in order to continue to build a deeper relationship with the department of corrections.

This is my last report as the PR chair. I have turned in the PR laptop with all passwords to the ASC Chair. It has been a privilege and an honor to be the chair of this PR subcommittee. These past 2 years have been a learning and growing experience for myself that I will always be grateful for. The subcommittee does not have a recommendation for a chair because it is myself and the previous chair as the only two members at this time. We hope that this subcommittee can obtain new members that are as eager about PR as we are. This subcommittee is very important, and I plan to continue to serve within it in the future.

In Loving Service,
Steph C.
GPANA PR Chair

We would like to update groups on the recent mask mandate required in Rhode Island as of Monday so each group can discuss and be prepared for their next meeting. This blurb can also be found on our website.

A partial mask mandate will be reinstated in Rhode Island as of Monday, December 20, 2021.

“Masks will be required indoors in smaller businesses, those with a capacity of 250 or less, unless the business or venue requires proof of COVID vaccination for entry.”

The Greater Providence Area of Narcotics Anonymous continues to practice responsibility and accountability to all state mandates to keep our meetings a safe place for addicts.

All Greater Providence Area Convention Executive Committee positions will be nominated and elected at the GPASC meeting. This is to take place in July prior to the beginning of the Convention cycle.

Purpose

The Convention Subcommittee Executive committee executes the conscience of the overall committee. It functions as the administrative committee of the convention and holds separate, periodic and special-subcommittee meetings. Its function is to ensure that the various subcommittees work together and to assist subcommittees that may need extra help. The Executive Committee also makes regular reports to the Area Service Committee sponsoring the convention. The members of the Executive Committee discuss the performance of Subcommittees as well as the convention budget and other matters that affect the convention. The results of these discussions are included in reports at the convention committee meetings.

- Demonstrated stability in the local N.A. community.
- Accounting skills. Service experience with conventions or other large scale Fellowship activities.
- Accessibility to other committee members, especially the Registration Subcommittee.

Responsibilities of the GPA Convention Subcommittee TREASURER:

A. Opens a bank account for the Convention Committee. Usually the signatures required for the account are any two of the four signatories (Convention Subcommittee Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer. The cards and account information are filled out at the committee meeting.)

B. Works with the Chair and Vice Chair to prepare a budget for the convention that is used for planning fund-raising activities. The budget is based on the subcommittee's recommendations as to the monies they will need to carry out their tasks. The budget can be a rough estimate at the beginning of the planning, and revised as the convention draws near. When all of the financial needs of the subcommittees are listed and totaled, the income should be outlined: one source of income comes from fund-raisers, and the second from registrations.

C. Writes all checks and is responsible for collecting receipts from subcommittees for money paid out.

D. Responsible for all monies—including revenues from registration and banquet tickets: pays all bills; and advises the Chair on cash supply, income flow, and rate of expenditures.

E. Reviews subcommittee reports for departures from the financial plan not mentioned in the original budget so that an accurate budget can be maintained. This information is included in the Treasurer's report.

F. Each check should require two signatures. Additionally, a complete Treasurer's report within three months after the convention should be submitted to the sponsoring service committee along with fund distribution. Many convention committees also have the report audited as a further safeguard of convention funds.

G. A periodic review of all financial records should be made by the sponsoring service area. The records should be reviewed at the time of the actual fund distribution in accordance with the Treasurer's financial statement requirements.
