RCM Report: (Mike D.)

Few things from region, first there is a NAWS webinar that is being promoted as a service oriented presentation. They are encouraging members of NA to at least join in for this event. They are having speakers on various related fellowship development and service related topics. Second, the NE region has been participating in the month long caring and sharing event to promote funds for NAWS during the month of April. They passed a motion that the NE region will host this event next year. For more information please contact the regional chairperson. This past month there have been time slots allotted to different groups and regions, so we encourage anyone who would like to get involved with that to contact the region. The annual financial report is finally available on na.org so anyone interested in knowing what the final numbers for 2020 were can find that. We know that NAWS didn't do as well as they normally do since the office was closed much of the year. Member, group, and regional donations are up about 20% from the previous year. If you would like more information please contact your RD at RD@newenglandregionna.org. The final piece of business is that the region's finances were in the negative, and there are some events coming up for PR, FD is sending someone to an event later this year, and the particulars of the breakdown for the RD team was submitted for the upcoming conference cycle. Any of those reports are available, just contact me directly.

IS SEEKING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

OPEN POSITIONS ARE

V CHAIR	5 yrs of continuous clean time
TREASURER	5 yrs
ALT TREASURER	4 yrs
SECRETARY	2 yrs

ALT SECRETARY 2yrs

If anyone is interested please contact me @ 401-480-4835 & or come to our next area committee meeting that meets the 4th Sunday of every month on zoom, meeting code 7190367110 PW-0000.

We are also looking for ideas for a convention logo & theme. You do not need to be a committee member to submit ideas.

YOUR GREATER PROVIDENCE AREA NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

I connected with the Crowne Plaza Hotel in February & they said they were basically not doing any hospitality business at that point in February. I will be checking with the hotel again in April before the next area meeting to see how business is at that point with them.

I would like to ask everyone to please be announcing the open convention positions (v chair, treasurer, alt treasurer, secretary) in all meetings. If anyone is interested please contact me at (401) 480-4835 and or come to our next area committee meeting. I would like the convention committee to begin working on a logo & theme so that if & or when we are able to move forward with the convention we are ready.

Hopefully by June we have a enough information & a committee to be able to decide whether or not we will be able to have an in person convention in early 2022. We can at that point figure out how we want to move forward with GPACNA XI.

H&I: (Liz C.)

Our subcommittee met today from 1:30 – 2:15 pm with 6 people in attendance. There was a fire at Adcare this past week, so this week's commitments were cancelled.

We started holding commitments on Thursdays at Phoenix House. We should start seeing all three wings (Mens, Womens, Detox) logging in to the commitments this month. We are looking for 2 Panel Leaders. The 2 nd and 4 th Saturday at Adcare are open. We are in desperate need of support. Only one group has been regularly showing up and signing up for commitments. We would appreciate everyone announcing at their meetings that we have open positions and need support. I would be helpful for H&I reps to start coming to the subcommittee to participate. There was talk about forming an ADHOC for a service themed Speaker Jam to get people more involved with H&I and service work in general. Please contact me (Liz C – H&I Chair) for more information. As a reminder, if anyone would like to sign their group or if you would like to attend a commitment individually, please email us nahandiofri@gmail.com. Contact information is on the website under the H&I tab and please include your phone number so we can contact you quickly and easily.

Public Relations Report (Steph G.)

The PR Subcommittee met on April 25th with good attendance.

Topics Discussed:

Phone line Position: OPEN. Our current phone line rep has stepped down from the position and we are looking for an addict that is willing to step in. This position requires some training. This position answers phone calls that are screened through the regional phone line to our area, and the addict gives information on NA meetings, info, etc.

PR Week: The region will be participating in annual PR week, June 6th through June 12th. There will be presentations every night of the week, “We are all PR”. Each night will have a different topic. GPANA will be hosting Sunday June 12th, however all others will be available via zoom as well for the entire week.

Serenity Center: We were contacted by The Serenity Center in Woonsocket, and they are looking for a day time meeting for NA to fill. If any groups or addicts are interested in starting a meeting between 12 and 4 on a day during the week (Tuesday through Thursday) once a week, please contact me and I can give you the contact information.

After Drug Stories: We talked about After Drug Stories that are commonly given in PR presentations, we have a presentation this week that we will be giving one and we asked an addict to attend and we practiced.

ADHOC: We are still waiting on contact from the Women's ACI to schedule a presentation.

Providence Housing Pres: We will be giving a presentation on April 28th for Providence Housing clients during a wellness group.

Probation Presentation: The presentation was rescheduled for May, we will be giving the presentation this month.

Good afternoon

I made a few updates to meetings and did some general maintenance to our site.

I have not yet purchased the Lifetime support for the Theme we use on our site. I should be able to complete this by the next ASC meeting. This is just an FYI for accounting.

Group Concerns:

Southside NA Annual Cookout - we have been meeting., there is a committee. We have a date and have put it on the website. August 8th, 2021. We have the permit already, and can have as many as 500 people. This should not be a problem. THE one thign we have been talking about is the ability to have it with the funds that we have and try and budget out, we will be selling tshirts, but we may ask the committee to help us out as we did a few years ago. Our next meeting is may 1st, it is immediatly following KISS regularly schedule meeting at 3:15 same meeting ID as KISS.

KISS - meets Sat from 1-3pm located at , put in a donation this month. I would like to mention that we lost a member, Earl, that passed from a heart attack this past Tuesday. We feel a big loss and just wanted to put that out there for people to reflect on. Our lives are very valuable so, i just wanted to bring that forward to everybody. Also, just a reminder ours is a hybrid meeting.

Open Forum:

- Carrie - Mike brought up the reason why we need to do an area inventory which is that we dont mentor people into their roles. there is an area polkanning tool that exists. are we doing the best thing that we can to serve our membership? I don't care if we just do an inventory oruse the area planning tool. I would like to take stock in light of the fact that we don't get a lot of GSR's and group concerns is always crickets, that probably is not accurate in my opinion. i'm sure that groups need help with things. Are we helping our groups to create the atmosphere of recovery? maybe they don't have gsr's who come here because they don't have gsr's. we first have to look at ourselves. I personally like what SEMA does which is the first month they have a regular area meeting then the next month they have a workshop on various topics. Maybe we could do something different.

- Vincent - I support the idea of having an area inventory, if I remember correctly we had one roughly 10 years ago where we had a whole day of activities surrounding the area. There are a whole lot of activities we need to review and look at and we need to take the time and do an inventory.
- Tom C - as it said in the fourth concept we seek out knowledge, and i'm new to this, and i have heard of an inventory, where can i find the information on that? i don't know what is involved with an area inventory?
- Mike D - The area learning tool is in the section on na.org called the NA toolbox that has several things in there that areas and groups can use to improve the way that they provide services. so, anybody can go on na.org and look at that stuff. I suggested before the covid shutdown that we incorporate an area inventory once a year and it didn't pass. At the time there didn't seem to be enough interest. i think the majority of us need to get in a room together and have a conversation about the stuff that we need to look at. not all of us are going to see things the same way. we are going to have different ways of accomplishing different solutions. being honest about the services we are providing as an area is important, and the issue of mentorship when we have experienced members step away from positions and newer members step in and the new person is not given the guidance and training that they need to be successful in the position. it's on us not giving them the tools they need to be successful. I make myself available every month and have yet to be contacted by any GSR's to find out about what's going on in the fellowship. It's kind of on us to see what we want to do with this whether we want to provide services better than we are right now.
- Susan - I just want to say that I support it, I don't know a lot about exactly as how to do it. I think that especially coming out of the year we just had we have no idea what groups need. Some groups may need more help than others. And where all of this is leading us it might be a really good time to seriously think about doing this.
- Tom C - Seeing that a lot of us in the area have not done an inventory but are recommending it can the area body do a learning day around this?
- Carrie - I think that we can reach out to our region for help here, not just our delegates. Maybe we can task Mike to reach out to our region and see if someone can come and give us a jump start and teach us how to implement this process because we don't have any experience with an area inventory. Maybe even part of the process we can write up what happens and create a tool to pass on to those after us.
- Mike D - If i encourage members from region to come here are we going to get a limited response or participation? We need to have an interaction of ideas, a give and take, and some brainstorming of what is not working, what is broken and find some solutions to fix it. You can provide all the information in the world but the people who need to take advantage of that information don't do anything with it, the information just sits there.

The solution is that you have to get people to realize that there is a significant enough problem that people seek a solution for it and implement it.

- Vincent C - There was a whole day of activities when we did the inventory we talked about leadership we talked about service, we sold t-shirts. there was a combination of activities that went on that day. I know it was over 10 years ago. I wonder if we could go into our archives and find a record of what was done back then.
- Carrie - I'm just thinking that if we could get someone from region to just describe some different experiences they've had and could maybe walk us through some ideas of what has maybe happened previously we could maybe send out some information out to groups and take it from there. People could look over the document and bring it back.
- Chelsea - maybe we can set some time aside next month and everyone could come back next month with some questions or ideas and we can start making a plan and figure out how we are going to bring this to life.
- Mike D - The New England region Fellowship Development has a meeting in May and i can bring it up then and see if someone from FD can come to our next area meeting.
- Steph G - I have someone in mind that has lived in many different areas and done inventories and we could ask them to come. I will hopefully have more information about that soon.
