RSC

NOTES

I attended NESSNA in July the event it was incredible. As RCM I am trying to incorporate best practices I learned into my current position. The first take away I am implementing is trying a new report format to better summarize information and make the reports more attractive and digestible to members.

RSC had 7 areas in attendance and elections were held: John N. chair, Lauren C. vice chair, Gail secretary, Carrie website, Marissa PR, policy Mikey C., fellowship development D'Lanor, treasurer open, literature Katrina.

The regions convention chair stepped down so that position will be open in October RSC. The region is looking for a treasurer and hoping someone in the member areas has the experience and willingness to serve.

Treasury:

Opening balance: $7,036.68

Check to NAWS: $4,823.59

Basic Text history presentation

Feedback Needed

Do areas want a standing literature committee or do you want a project based committed that is ad-hoc?

Feedback

Received

Other areas have an hour long GSR orientation that is conducted by the Vice Chair (RC-M in the absence of vice chair). SEMA does the buddy system pairing new members with experienced members.

B. Works with the Chair and Vice Chair to prepare a budget for the convention that is used for planning fund-raising activities. The budget is based on the subcommittee's recommendations as to the monies they will need to carry out their tasks. The budget can be a rough estimate at the beginning of the planning, and revised as the convention draws near. When all of the financial needs of the subcommittees are listed and totaled, the income should be outlined: one source of income comes from fund-raisers, and the second from registrations.

C. Writes all checks and is responsible for collecting receipts from subcommittees for money paid out.

D. Responsible for all monies—including revenues from registration and banquet tickets: pays all fills; and advises the Chair on cash supply, income flow, and rate of expenditures.

E. Reviews subcommittee reports for departures from the financial plan not mentioned in the original budget so that an accurate budget can be maintained. This information is included in the Treasurer's report.

F. Each check should require two signatures. Additionally, a complete Treasurer's report within three months after the convention should be submitted to the sponsoring service committee along with fund distribution. Many convention committees also have the report audited as a further safeguard of convention funds.

G. A periodic review of all financial records should be made by the sponsoring service area. The records should be reviewed at the time of the actual fund distribution in accordance with the Treasurer's financial statement requirements.
